A delight for youth to be a part of, SEUSSICAL is now one of the most-performed shows in America! In this fantastical, magical, musical extravaganza, actors will delight in being a part of this upbeat production that features cool characters and great music!

Seussical

The Musical

Target ages

Middle School:

8th, 7th, 6th,

Elementary:

2nd-5th

Auditions: Jan 17th, 2012 from 4:30-8:30

Rehearsals: Tuesdays from 6-8pm starting Jan 24th

Show dates: March 30 - April 1st, 2012

Students will need to be absent from school on Friday, March 30.

Produced by our creative team: Directors, Sheri Bestor and Debbie Knuth, Choreographer Kathleen Fictum, and Music Director Angela Mack.

An acting coach will work with all cast members teaching them drama and theater skills that will last a lifetime.

Your child will learn the process of putting on a musical, culminating in performances for school groups and the public. These shows are complete with costumes, scenery, playbooks, lights, sound, and ACTION! All registered students will be cast in the production, but are strongly encouraged to participate in the audition process.

Program Goals and Objectives:

- Introduction to vocal projection, articulation, choreography, and acting.
- Introduction to appropriate and believable stage movement.
- Fostering self-esteem and self-confidence.
- Nurturing friendships and learning cooperatively.

While spaces are limited, we need to fill the cast to be able to produce the show.

Please register early and tell your friends!
